PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Louisiana Conference of Methodist Protestant Church now in session in Jonesboro, La., Greetings in the Lord:

Immediately after last annual conference I entered upon my duties and continued until now. I have traveled thousands of miles, held 36 quarterly conferences, preached 90 times, held 3 revival meetings, gave some time to the needs of our Chatham Camp, preached several funerals and helped in several, have met with Church Extension Board and have looked after our delinquent property.

Official Acts

In January, I appointed Rev. C. A. Calhoun to Dry Prong church as pastor.

In May, I appointed Rev. I. A. Patton to Winfield church, which was left unsupplied at last Conference.

Later in May, I received Rev. L. A. Bodie's resignation from Hollins Chapple and Antioch. Soon after, I appointed Rev. E. W. Corley pastor of Antioch and Bro. Brown to Hollins Chapple. Bro. Brown, failing to get word of this appointment, Hollins Chapple remained unsupplied until now.

I left Barrons Chapple unsupplied at their request.

I appointed a Mrs. Lewis to supply Bethel at their request.

I then received Bro. Morris Lee's resignation from Jena and Beulah and in July appointed Rev. F. L. Shows pastor.

I granted Bro. Strickland and also Bro. Ezell Garlington a transfer to the North Carolina Conference.

Improvements Noted

Ansley installed some fine shades in their church.

Pollock has repaired their church all over and did a fine job of it.

Dry Prong church was re-roofed by C. A. Calhoun, and the Church Extension Board.

Grayson Methodist Protestant people did some needed repair on the Southern Methodist church.

Money, lumber, and needed material is all ready to repair the South Winfield church. Rev. I. A. Patton is responsible.

Sunrise church has made their church a new one, installing carbide lights and a piano.

Our Chatham Camp buildings were reroofed, shower bath for girls and a fine range stove installed.

Recommendations

That our pastors put forth a great effort to observe all the special days of the denomination.

That we stand by our young people's school at Chatham.

That we give more prayerful attention to Bro. Downs' rescue work, especially do we commend this work to our woman's missionary branch and the church as a whole.

That our pastors and people subscribe for our church paper for there is no greater literature in print than the Methodist Recorder.

That our people stand still 'till God lets us go, and close our ears to those who would discourage our denominational program. We are yet Methodist Protestants.

May God add his choicest blessings to you.

In His Name,

J. W. LEE.

Supplement: That we cooperate with the anti-saloon league in the fight against the awful evil of intemperance.

The secretary read the names of the various committees appointed by the president.

The report of Rev. George Rockhold was read and upon motion by his request his name was dropped from the ministerial list.

Committee on Education report was read and adopted.

EDUCATION REPORT

We your committee on Education submit this our report:

We are living in an age that necessitates more education in all walks of life than in any previous age.

Never before in the history of the world is the demand greater for higher standards and clearer thinking on the part of our gospel ministry.

In view of the fact that the demand for educated people is continually increasing in every vocation of life, we should therefore take a definite stand against illiterate ministry. Therefore, we recommend:

That everyone coming to our conference and undertaking the high calling of the gospel ministry do all in their power to attend one of our colleges and thus qualify themselves for the great task that is before them.

We further recommend that the preachers of our conference preach at least once a year on Christian Education and insist upon their people taking advantage of every available opportunity and as a conference we place ourselves as a supporter of our denominational institutions, and in view of the fact that we have neglected taking our church paper let us put forth a greater effort to place our church paper in our homes.

Respectfully submitted:

REV. B. P. DURBIN

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE

In as much as the Scripture teaches us to be temperate in all things, and feeling that this includes all our habits, but more especially, first, the use of intoxicating drinks, then gambling, and the use of tobacco, Sabbath desecration, etc.

As a conference we should take a definite stand for total abstinence for Paul says, "Abstain from all appearance of evil." Our girls and boys should be taught that they must "Touch not, taste not, handle not the unclean thing."

Therefore, we recommend, that as a conference we put forth every effort in our power to blot out the liquor traffic, and in order to do this that we elect out of this body someone to be a member of the Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of Louisiana, and assist and cooperate with this great organization in an effort to bring back prohibition.

TO THE NINETY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION OF THE LOUISIANA CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH:

I thank God whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day—II Tim. 1:3. How I wish I could be with you dear ones at this of all sessions. May heaven's richest blessings rest upon you every one. This year has been a glorious year to me. I held one revival in which over 75 precious souls were reclaimed, saved or sanctified. We have had 53 precious souls brought to the Lord here in the home. We have baptized 13 babies and 4 adults—performed 4 marriages, and we do praise the Lord for each trial and test of life, for the dear Lord has and does answer prayer, praise His Holy Name.

Please give me the same appointment, (that of evangelist). God bless and keep our beloved Zion true to the trust that was given us.—the salvation of precious souls and the spread of Scriptural Holiness. I am sending $10.00 to be placed as you see fit on the conference claims.

I do pray this may be the greatest conference that we have ever had. I am so thankful I am a member of such a devoted christian body. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Yours in gospel bonds,
M. E. BARTLETT

And we are indeed grateful to other pastors and their people for the fine spirit they have shown in helping to entertain and take care of this conference. Rev. J. R. Downs, general rescue missionary, and superintendent of the Home of the Good Samaritan, submitted verbal report which was adopted.

The Fellowship Crusade Committee submitted the following report:

We, your committee, recommend that an assessment of $300.00 be made jointly with the $300.00 made by the general conference, with the general and annual conference sharing equally in the amount raised. The annual conference amount to be divided between the Home of the Good Samaritan, the Superannuate Fund, and the Chatham Camp building fund. 1-6 to the Home of the Good Samaritan; 1-6 to the Superannuate Fund and 4-6 to the Camp Chatham building fund. To raise this fund we recommend that each member of the church be assessed 20 cents each.

We further recommend that this amount be raised by May 1, 1938, and sent to the conference treasurer.

Upon motion Rev. W. S. Dunn was appointed conference missionary.

The stationing committee submitted their report, and appointments were read by the president.

Motion prevailed to adjourn.

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Frank W. Stephenson.

This closed the 91st annual session of the Methodist Protestant Church.
